DANUA

PRESENTED BY

THE SENIOR CLASS

DANSVILLE CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

D.C.H.S. ALMA MATER

1. Nes - tled in our qui -- et val-ley 'Twixt the hills serene,
2. At thy feet, our glorious High School, We our garlands strew.

Proudly stands our Al--ma Mater, Clad in ivy green.
Thow art our beloved Mother, We'll to thee be true.

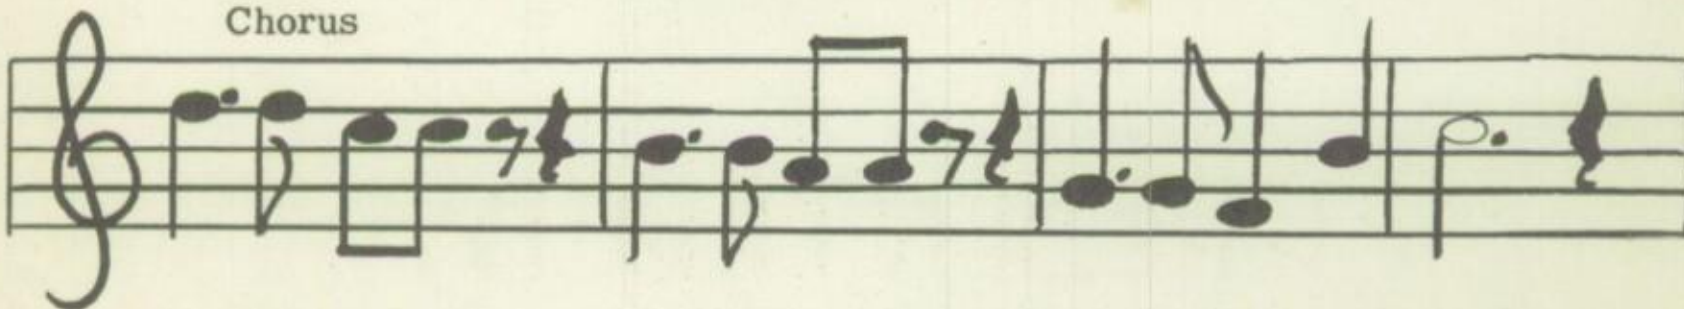

Far below the busy traffic of the bustling cars,
Fondly will we do thy bidding, While we present are.

Peers she upward into heaven at the twinkling stars.
And when 'lumni days are speeding, Sound thy praises far.

Chorus

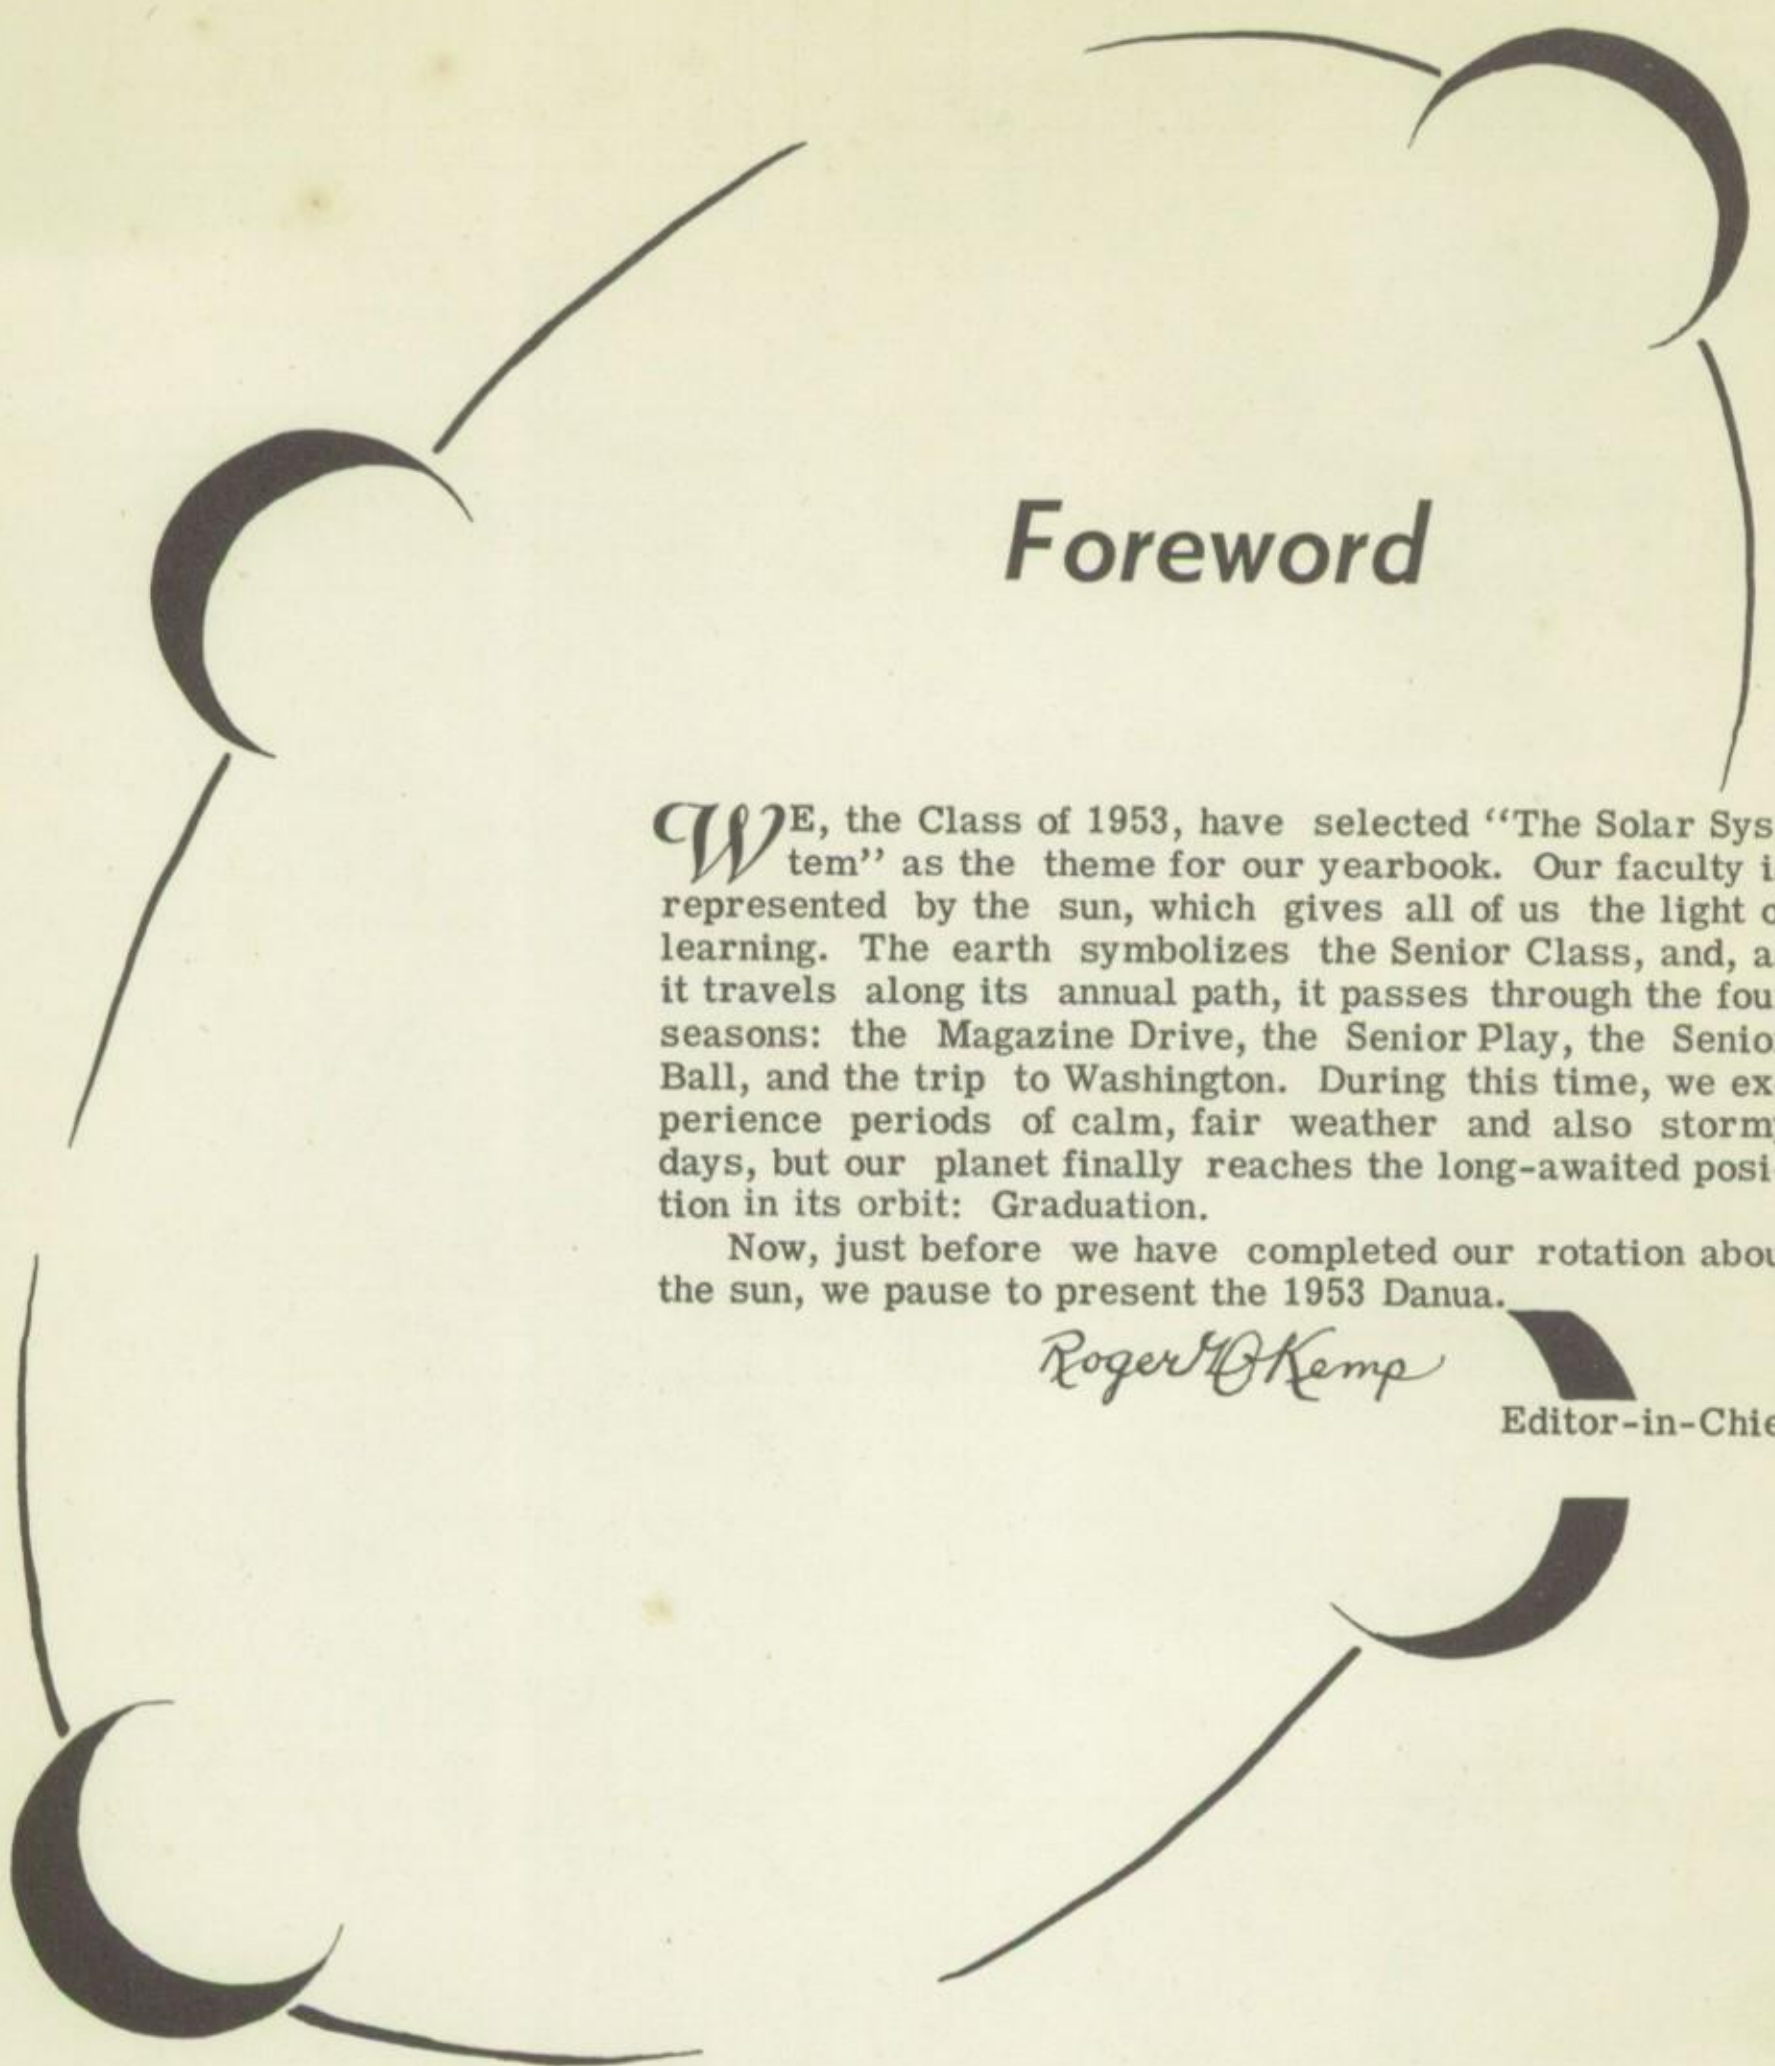

Raise the chorus; spread it onward, Loud her praises ring.

'Tis of thee, our Alma Mater, D. H. S., we sing.

Foreword

WE, the Class of 1953, have selected "The Solar System" as the theme for our yearbook. Our faculty is represented by the sun, which gives all of us the light of learning. The earth symbolizes the Senior Class, and, as it travels along its annual path, it passes through the four seasons: the Magazine Drive, the Senior Play, the Senior Ball, and the trip to Washington. During this time, we experience periods of calm, fair weather and also stormy days, but our planet finally reaches the long-awaited position in its orbit: Graduation.

Now, just before we have completed our rotation about the sun, we pause to present the 1953 Danua.

HOMEROOM TEACHERS
Mrs. R. Bill, Mrs. C. Purchase

Dedication

*I*N appreciation for the kindness, consideration and patience they have shown us, we the Class of 1953, dedicate our Danua to Mrs. Purchase and Mrs. Bill, with the sincere assurance that we shall not forget their guidance and encouragement. For all the services they have performed for our benefit, we say simply, "Thanks!"

Board of Education

Mr. Burrell Knapp, Mrs. Elizabeth E. DePuy, Mr. Wilfred J. Rauber,
Mr. Gerald J. Gersbach, Dr. Thomas VanDerhoof.

THE Board of Education is the force which causes our planets to rotate and revolve efficiently in the universe of D. C. H. S. The various members of the Board give freely of their time and energy so that this can be done. We are grateful to them for their unfailing interest, for their cooperation and for all that they have done to make our journey through high school a happy one.

Administration

Asst. Prin. J. Schmitt, Prin. F. Covert, Prin. E. Hyde, Asst. Prin. C. A. Seymour, Supt. L. A. Bradley

THE administration is the guiding force of our school system. These administrative officials make certain that all of the planets are in their correct orbits, and that the activities of these planets are carried out successfully. For the many hours that our administrators have spent to make our journey through high school a profitable one, we express our heartfelt appreciation.

In Memoriam

*M*RS. FLORENCE D. AYERS devoted 25 years of service helping her students gain a better understanding not only of academic subjects, but of purposeful living. Her kindly thoughts and deeds will live on in the memories of fellow-teachers and students alike.

*K*AY HUNGERFORD will be affectionately remembered by the members of the Graduating Class of 1953. Her willingness to co-operate, her gay and friendly personality during our Freshman Year secured for her a permanent place in the hearts of her classmates.

History

OUR Freshman year found Pres. Kent Harding, Vice-Pres. Jean Price, Sec. Carol Weber and Treas. Richard Wirth guiding us through a successful year, with our sweater dances as our major project.

Under the supervision of Richard Wirth as Pres., Don Vogt as Vice-Pres., Noreen Gessner as Sec. and Carl Gibson as Treas., our Sophomore year was very profitable. Our movie benefit and dances were a great success. Another rung on the ladder had been climbed.

Juniors at last ! Our Pres. was Carl Gibson, with Dennis Donovan, Jean Price and Carl Barber filling the offices of Vice-Pres., Sec. and Treas., respectively. The Junior Playhouse, under the excellent chairmanship of Larry Miller, was one of the highlights of our year. We also sold candy, Roy McCaffery acting as Chairman.

"Are there going to be enough streamers for the walls?" This was the anxious question most often asked as the date of our Junior Prom approached. Ably supervised by Mr. Sullivan, our Prom was highly successful, its theme being "Garden in the Rain."

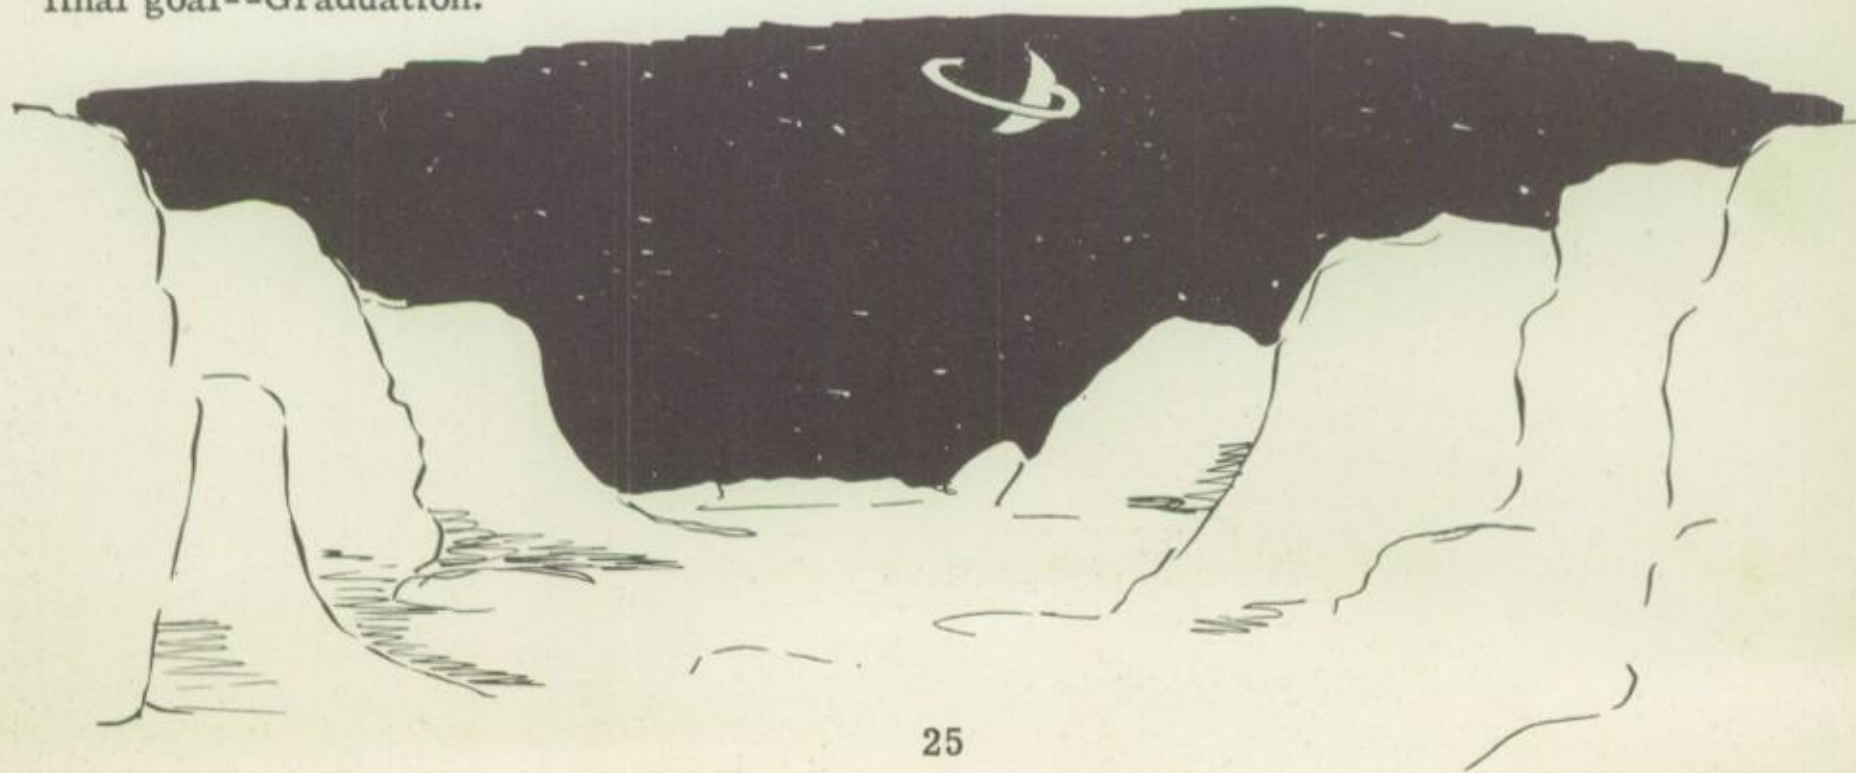

Finally came our Senior year, with its promising array of projects, hard work and happy times. We elected Larry Miller to wield the gavel as Pres., supported by Nancy Walker as Vice-Pres., with pen and pencils going to Sec. Gretta Rathburn, and the task of balancing the books falling to Treas. Kent Harding. Our magazine drive shattered last year's record by over $1000.

"If these lines aren't learned, I'll be a 'mort canard--dead duck--French, remember?" Our Senior Play, "The Curious Savage" was played by a cast ably headed by Gretchen Van Derhoof, and directed by Miss O'Neil.

As the Christmas Ball approached, its theme song, "Stairway to the Stars," was whistled, hummed and sung by every student in 307. Paper, pins, string and blueprints; late hours, hard work and the helpful hand of Mrs. Bill made the Ball memorable. Bev Jerome and Bill Mothorpe were chosen King and Queen with Dick Wirth and Gretta Rathburn as Prince and Princess.

Semester exams, term papers, Danua Staff meetings, band rehearsals. As the school year drew rapidly to a close, we found ourselves busier than ever. Amid empty rubber cement bottles, master sheets and clipped photographs, were to be found Roger Kemp, Miss Magavero and the entire Danua Staff.

With the Washington trip over, and our caps and gowns ready to don, we close our four year album, and with relief mingled with regret, express our appreciation to Mr. Covert, Mrs. Purchase, Mrs. Bill, Miss Magavero, Mrs. Plough, Miss O'Neil, Mr. Moder and to the countless others who have helped in so many ways to make it possible for us to achieve our final goal--Graduation.

Class Will

- Item I. As we, the Class of '53 prepare to depart from D. C. H. S., we bring into light all of our scholarly traits, bequeathing them to all who prove themselves worthy of the surroundings in Room 307.
- Item II. To Mrs. Purchase we bequeath a lifetime supply of genuine eraser-tipped pencils, and an indefinite supply of perseverance, will power, and determination, to cope with the long hours of book work; and to Mrs. Bill we leave not only an automatic note book collector, sorter, marker, and distributor, but also a 40-volume collection of Handy Helps on Major Dance Decorations.
- Item III. To Miss O'Neil we bequeath our love for term papers--and a complete collection of Blum and Hemmer's "Copyrighted Crib Sheets."
- Item IV. Patience!!--A good supply of this invaluable trait is left to Miss Magavero, accompanied by a sincere hope that all of our "Ad Money" is in.
- Item V. With diplomas approaching, we gather together the best of our traits and unfold them to the eager hands of underclassmen, who are already familiar with the characteristics of the characters in Room 307.
1. The second period Art class leaves their "nausea stimulators" to anyone courageous enough to undertake the art brushes in the form of modern art.
  2. Dave Blum leaves his humorous versatility with his love for the extremes to Bob Brandt.
  3. Bill Fisher and Denny Donovan leave their penchant for distinctive wardrobes to Bill Carpenter and John Dromazos.
  4. To Harold Mess, Don Hall, and Charlie Wolf, Carl Gibson leaves his goofing-off abilities.
  5. To the Junior Class James Heiman leaves this small bit of advice, "Get your History homework done, kids."
  6. Tiny Tim Hemmer leaves his latest novel "Pass the butter, the corn's bin served" to Wee Willy Davie.
  7. Larry Miller leaves his battered class gavel to any person who dares to rule out a motion.
  8. Dansville's original "Sleepy Trio," Bill Mothorpe, Dave Fox and Dave Perkins leave their slow, slumbering sambas of solitude to any of Mr. Smith's proteges willing to sleep their way to success.
  9. Shirley O'Herron and Carl Simon leave their "kiss and make up" technique to Barry Haywood and Cindy Price.
  10. Barbara Alverson, Geraldine Bennett, and the Caton sisters leave their ability to burn cakes, char rolls and scald milk to any up-and-coming Junior.
  11. Nancy Chapman leaves her yelling ability at basketball and football games to the Junior who has the strongest pair of lungs.
  12. Joann Hamsher leaves her talent to get Chemistry experiments done to any Junior Chemistry student willing to suffer from acute asphixiation and acid burns.
  13. Mary Richards and Gertrude Hinrich leave their poetic feuds to Nancy Sahrle and Rhoda VanDerwerken.
  14. Gladys Perrine bequeaths to Ann Wheat her battered but usable saxophone.
  15. To Charlie Wolf, Dick Wirth leaves his worn out athletic uniforms.
  16. Joyce LeBar leaves her immortal query "What was that we voted on?"
  17. Carolyn Hatch and Bev Gross leave their gift of gab to Sandy Hamsher and Nancy Maloney.

Class Will Continued:

18. To show Jeanette Haenling that she isn't the only tall girl in the school, the three Senior giants--Greta Hinds, Lorraine Jacobs and Wanda McKinney, leave to her their favorite motto, "It isn't the crowd-It's the stratosphere."
19. The screaming meanies of 307, Jerome the Ferocious and Sawdey the Meek, leave their cheering ability to those two darlings of noise and boys, Jean and Joyce Boyd.
20. Gretta Rathburn leaves her big eraser to the secretary of next year's Senior Class.
21. Janice Wilmot leaves her knack for getting to school three minutes after the bell has rung to any Junior who can forge a tardy slip.
22. Kent Harding and Ralph Knights, the two Frenchmen of 307, leave their "flaming red" hair to Red Stuart.
23. The Four Winds, VanDerhoof, Walker, Weber, and Gessner leave their deluxe method of "gum beating" to any up-and-coming Seniors who have the ability to drive homeroom teachers to resignation.
24. The Senior plow boys, Chet Knapp, Jim Guy, Fearless Withey, and Chuck Traxler leave their ability to plow a furrow to Gene Schultz, Bruce Binkley, Gerry Bachman, and Bill Englert.
25. Erna Hann leaves her quiet intelligence to Janet Lamphier.
26. Roy McCaffery leaves his bent and broken movie reels to Jack Jacobs.
27. Joyce Mauro leaves her treasured collection of songs to Barbara Kennedy.
28. Shirley Luce bequeaths her blind-folded, one-leg-balanced, left-arm hook to Barbara Witherell.
29. Flash Barber, Woosh Weidman, Rip Harter and 95??! Everman, leave their shoes still on the accelerator to anyone with a knack for wrecking the nerves of pedestrians.
30. To any Junior with an abundant supply of determination, sportsmanship, and personality, John Fitzpatrick leaves the sparkling smile and husky voice that made him a valuable asset to the cheering section of D. C. H. S.
31. Mary Sahrle and Wynona Barrett leave their blushing red faces to that formidable duet, Mary Kaye Lemen and Margie Fuhrman.
32. Dan Chesbro, Stan Gilbert, and Jimmy Jacobs leave their torn plates and compasses to anyone capable of their mechanical supervision.
33. To Joanne Hulbert, Jean Price leaves her worn out boots, bent baton, and her ability to fill out a majorette uniform.
34. The three Casanovas, Whitney, Shutt, and Rodman leave their talents for wooing the ladies to Ronnie Sather, Schultsie Pruner and Don Quibell.
35. Mary Applin leaves her confidential diary to Bonnie Gould and Shirl Hartman.
36. Alice Sterner leaves her talents for tinkling the ivories to M. A. Wallace.
37. Don Vogt leaves his unlimited supply of yellow tardy slips to Jon VanDerhoof.
38. To Marjorie Shay, Helen Brokaw leaves the stubs of term paper pencils.
39. Verna Jacobs and Onnollee Burger leave their empty Kleenex boxes to Isabell Mott and Esther Hinds.
40. The sequel to the Theory on Evolution, by Roger Kemp, is left to J. Kiehle.
41. Joe King leaves his split pen points to Ross Allen.

We hereby declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

*E*ACH class has as its goal its Senior Trip. After a good financial beginning as Freshmen, the Class of 1955 proceeded to add to its treasury by conducting a very successful ticket sale for the annual Movie Benefit. In addition to this, a most profitable Sweater Dance was held. The other money-raising project was the sale of "Coke," both from the "Coke" machine and at the games. All in all the Sophomores enjoyed a prosperous year.

Projector Operators

*E*ACH year the projector operators, made up of boys and girls who have volunteered their services, under the direction of Mr. Seymour, take care of all films for the school, service clubs and churches in Dansville.

Junior Red Cross Play Cast

*T*HE Junior Red Cross play, "Murder in Rehearsal" was presented on March 19 and 20, 1953, under the direction of Mr. Mottl.

Future Farmers

*T*HIS year marked the Silver Anniversary of the FFA. In observance of this twenty-fifth birthday, the Dansville chapter has endeavored to build its program for 1953 around leadership education and scientific farming. FFA activities this year included television and radio broadcasts, a school assembly program, community service features such as milk testing and livestock improvement, a four acre field corn research and educational plot, leadership training school, and County and State Fair exhibits.

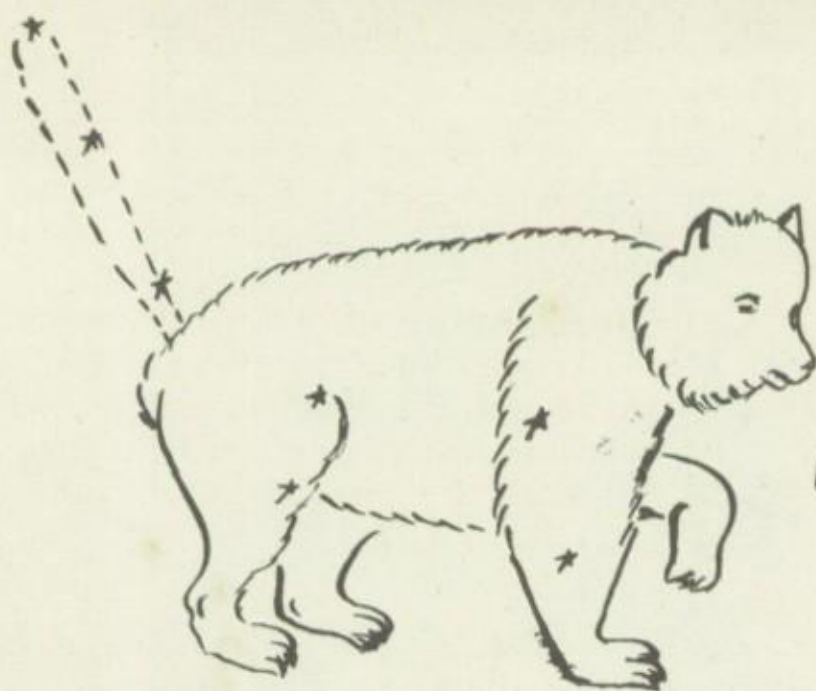

*A*T an October meeting of the Dansville Future Homemakers, officers were elected to lead us during the school year. A candle-light ceremony in November initiated twenty new members. A dance and Christmas party with the FFA added to our December social activities. April 30 explained our busy meetings of the spring term. We entertained girls from twenty other FHA chapters at a spring rally of the central western district. At this rally, we were honored by the presence of our state advisor.

LIVINGSTON CO. JR. HIGH CHAMPIONS

THE Dansville Jr. High basketball team had a very successful season as the 7th and 8th grade team went through the league undefeated, winning seven straight games. This gave them the overall championship in their division and they increased their string to 10 games without a defeat.

The freshmen team had a fairly successful season defeating Dalton, Caledonia, Wayland, and the F. F. A. Jr. Varsity of Dansville. They lost to five teams and were just under the .500 mark. The combined total for the season league and nonleague was 14 victories and 6 defeats.
